Good News From Seattle.

Realizing that Seattle's reputation subscription will be properly for hospitality is at stake, the Restaurant Keepers' Association, which represents 52 of the largest cafes in the city, has pledged itself not to raise the prices of meals during the period that the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition is in progress. The association has already signed an agreement with the Cooks kind of men who will make the and Waiters, the Waitresses and Bartenders' unions to maintain the present scale of wages until June 1, 1910. With this agreement, the restaurant men know in advance that wages for help will not be increased during the Exposition season. This action of the restaurant keepers will be glad news to persons contemplating visiting Seattle dur-

Monmouth Defeats Amendment.

At a special election held in Monmouth Wednesday the proposed amendment to the charter, which would grant a larger bond issue for municipal light or water plant, was defeated, and at the same time an amendment was adopted providing for retaining the road polltax for use on the town streets.

The committee having in charge the raising of funds for the entertainment of the Oregon State Encampment, G. A. R., in Corvallis, June 2, 3, 4, was out yesterday securing subscriptions, and met with the most gratifying success. Everybody in the city should contribute to this fund so that the hospitality extended here to the veterans may be talked about for years to come.
